Innisfree Mayor's Message in a Minute

"In the good ole summertime" I sing this song this time of the year. Summer is my favorite time of the year. Things slow down and people visit their friends and neighbors more and the fresh fruits and vegetables are coming into their season.

The museum is hoping to be able to open soon. Anyone interested in helping please contact Robert Dobler or myself. Innisfree has a lot to showcase in the museum. There is an art gallery upstairs in the museum showcasing several local artists. When it is open stop by and check it out.

The Village of Innisfree Library is open again, Wednesday from 2 to 7, Thursday from noon to 5 and Friday from 9 to 2.

The Village is opening a community garden on main street. To be included in the garden, please contact the Village office for details. You can enjoy fresh vegetable from your own little bit of work in the community garden.

The Birch Lake Recreation Park i.e., Campground is opened. Thanks to the Innisfree & District Fish and Game for providing the fireworks on July 1st. It looks like a good number of campers were there and hopefully all enjoyed the July 1st celebrations.

Good luck in your new pursuits, Bobbi Jo Jackson. Thanks for your time and care as a member of the staff on the Village. We will miss you. Our loss will be the next step in your futures gain.

Waiting is hard, but please wait! Cases of Covid-19 are dropping but it is still around, and we must protect ourselves and others. Many are getting their Covid-19 Vaccines and it is good to be able to get both your vaccines.

Check updates as they are posted on the Village web site, www.innisfree.ca and Facebook page, Village of Innisfree.

Respectfully,
Debbie McMann,
Village of Innisfree Mayor

WIKIPEDIA says: Summer is the hottest of the four temperate seasons, falling after spring and before autumn. At or around the summer solstice (about 3 days before Midsummer Day), the earliest sunrise and latest sunset occurs, the days are longest and the nights are shortest, with day length decreasing as the season progresses after the solstice. The date of the beginning of summer varies according to climate, tradition, and culture. When it is summer in the Northern Hemisphere, it is winter in the Southern Hemisphere, and vice versa.

Advice from a Pickle

-Life can be hard sometimes. Dill with it.

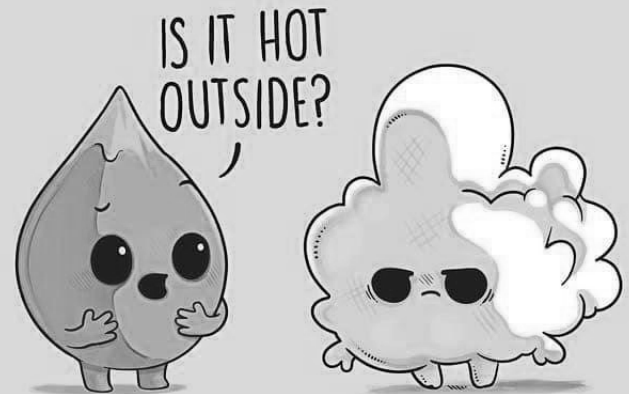

-Relish every moment you share with those you love.

-The door to happiness is always ajar.

-If you want life to be sweet, you have to know what sour tastes like, too.

-Remember, life is never a dill moment.

-Don't worry -

C If You See Bigfoot... Once there was a group of hikers traveling through the deep woods in the Pacific Northwest. OUTDOOR The group leader gave the hikers a very stern warning: "If, by any chance, you see Bigfoot, run. But whatever you do, don't touch Bigfoot!" R That night, after the group had set up camp, one hiker was in his tent, when Bigfoot appeared. The huge creature stood in the doorway of the tent. E The hiker was so scared, he ran screaming out of the tent, but on his way, he touched Bigfoot. Bigfoot ran after him. The guy ran as fast as he could through the dark forest, Bigfoot was in hot pursuit.

He made it back to the trailhead, jumped in his car and sped home. A few days later, Bigfoot showed up at his back door. Panicked, the guy starts running as fast as he can, Bigfoot right behind. Finally, exhausted, he trips and falls. Bigfoot catches up to him, plants his huge feet right next to him.

Shaking, the guy gets to his feet and shouts, "What do you want?!"

Bigfoot reaches out to him and says, "Tag, you're it."

Coming Up for Air! by Deb Barber

Maybe this extreme heat is good for something as it gives me an opportunity to stop and come up for air! It seems that since the snow has melted Farmer Hubby and I have gone non-stop and yet not really have left the farm.

Between mowing the lawn, weeding the garden, cultivating, trimming, watering the flowerpots, keeping the hummingbird feeders filled, cleaning the bird bath, feeding the horses and keeping up to their manure gifts, making sure the cats have fresh, cool water and oh yes trying to keep the sprayer up and operating some days fitting in eating and sleeping is not easy!

For some reason the Raven, Enviso Pro II decided that 2021 would be the year of the sprayer computer nightmare. It came to a point where I was embarrassed to contact the technician from the machinery outfit we deal with. Every little issue occurred from the booms actually smashing themselves into the ground and trying to dig their way to China to no pressure causing the machine to be rendered useless! I have started creating my own 'instruction' manual as I have learned so many different aspects of the programming and machine itself that you can 'check' prior to sending out an SOS to the expert! In fact, sometimes Farmer Hubby just sits in the 'buddy' seat and watches as my fingers fly across the screen as I slowly rule out past issues and attempt to ascertain what possibly could be malfunctioning this go around. I even had the tech's cell phone number on speed dial and I'm sure he was starting to cringe when he saw it come up. If you happened to drive by and saw us in the field with the wings of the booms going up and down at various speeds and angles and assumed, we had no idea what we were doing you possible were correct. One tends to take certain features such as 'auto boom' for granted until you navigate a field of rolling hills and you quickly learn that it's more of a necessity and less of an 'extra'. We finally arrived at the last day of spraying and still the sprayer had a mind of its own, however, we did want it repaired before cleaning it up and parking it for the year. Whatever the issue is it finally stumped the specialist and if he had hair, I'm sure he would have been pulling it out from the roots in frustration. As it stands, he 'thinks' he has found the root of the problem, but we truly won't know until next spring when we pull the machine out for spring work. At this point I'm looking at booking a vacation away from home during the spraying season of 2022!

If you have been following my story you will remember back in March/April when I turned our kitchen into a 'growing' room and no not for any plants that help you take a trip and never leave the farm! I had decided in my COVID boredom to attempt to start some petunia plants. It might just be beginner's luck, but I have a deck full of vibrant pots of multicolored plants and it certainly brightens our day sitting here surrounded by them.

Despite having to come up with many creative ways to plan an event, the graduating grade 12 class of Mannville School managed for host an outdoor affair and we proudly watched our first grandson walk across the 'grass' to celebrate his completion of 12 years of schooling. What a proud moment for all of us.

Then yesterday we were able to attend an "Un festival Dance" recital and sitting in 'pods' of family members we watched our youngest granddaughter dance and tap her way across the stage to a couple of lively numbers in glittering costumes matched with fantastic hair and make up.

These events that we maybe took for granted at one point in time have now become pivotal moments in our lives as we have learned that much that we use to take for granted were actually 'gifts' that we now so cherish.
